I concur with Nicolas. This is how we've performed previously. Also, I don't know if they have identified a need yet but might want to check with Charlie (TDD 004) on their FCA need.

I would request the FCA is attached to TDD003.

Please read ER's question below.

How does Superfund want to track the FCA costs for Houston (Bravo Branch)?

Subject: FCA for Bravo Branch

Hi Latrice, we will be adding an FCA in the coming days to the Bravo Branch. We will still have an FCA working under TDD 001 completing the 1900s for all branches. The additional FCA at Bravo will be assisting with administrative duties including timesheets, receipts, equipment tracking, procurements, etc. Please advise if you would like the costs associated with this FCA to be allocated to TDD 001 or the Bravo Branch TDD 003. Just want to be sure we are tracking it right or if a modification to the TDD is required.

Thanks,
